GRAMÁTICA

1. General explanation of Reported Speech

Function: Reported speech is used to report what another person has said, without repeating their exact words. When using reported speech, we typically change the tense, pronouns, and some words that indicate time or place.

Basic example

Direct speech: She said, "I am tired."

Reported speech: She said (that) she was tired.

We no longer repeat quotation marks or exact words.

2. Estructure and general rules

Basic estructura:

Sujeto + verbo de reporte (say, tell, ask) + that + oración en pasado

Example:

He said that he was hungry.

Cambios comunes de tiempo verbal:

Discurso Directo	Discurso Indirecto
Present Simple →	Past Simple
Present Continuous →	Past Continuous
Present Perfect →	Past Perfect
Past Simple →	Past Perfect
Will →	Would
Can →	Could
May →	Might
Must →	Had to

Cambios de palabras de tiempo/lugar:

Palabra directa	En Reported Speech
today	that day
tomorrow	the next day / the following day
yesterday	the day before
now	then
this	that
here	there

3. Example

A. Reported Statements

Regla:

Cuando reportamos una oración afirmativa o negativa, cambiamos el tiempo verbal.

Estructura:

Subject + said (that) + clause

10 Ejemplos:

1. He said that he was tired.
2. She said that she loved pizza.
3. They said that they were studying.
4. I said that I didn't like coffee.
5. John said that he had finished his homework.

9. She said that she was reading a good book.
10. My dad said that it was raining outside.

B. Reported Questions

Regla:

Cuando cambiamos preguntas al discurso indirecto:

- No usamos signos de interrogación.
- Cambiamos el orden: (ya no hay inversión entre sujeto y verbo).
- Usamos “if” o “whether” para preguntas de sí/no.
- Usamos la palabra interrogativa (who, what, where, etc.) para preguntas abiertas.

Estructura:

ask + (if/whether) + clause

ask + question word (what, where, why...) + clause

10 Ejemplos:

1. She asked if I was okay.
2. He asked where I lived.
3. They asked if I had finished the project.
4. I asked what time it was.
5. Mary asked if we could meet tomorrow.
6. John asked where she had gone.
7. He asked when the movie started.
8. She asked who had broken the window.
9. They asked if I liked soccer.
10. I asked why he was late.

C. Reported Requests and Commands

Regla:

Para órdenes o peticiones, usamos tell, ask, o order + (objeto) + to + verbo base.

Estructura:

ask/tell + objeto + to + verbo

(en negativas → not to + verbo)

10 Ejemplos:

1. She told me to close the door.
2. He asked me to help him.
3. My mom told me to study harder.
4. The teacher told us to be quiet.

Writing

Yesterday, I talked to three people and this is what they said.

The Singer

The singer said that she was working on a new album and that she had just finished recording a song with another artist.

She said that her fans were very supportive.

She asked if I liked pop music and if I had listened to her latest single.

She also told me to follow her on social media and to share her new song with my friends.

The Teacher

The teacher said that the students had improved a lot during the semester.

He said that he was proud of their progress and dedication.

He asked if everyone had studied for the upcoming exam and if they understood the topic clearly.

He told the class to review the lessons and not to forget their homework.

My Friend

My friend said that he was planning a trip to the beach next weekend.

He said that he needed some rest after a busy week.

He asked if I wanted to go with him and if I could bring some snacks.

He told me to call him later and to remind him to pack his sunscreen.
